

Revisions to the University of Michigan Board of Regents' Bylaws have been proposed and are now being posted for public comment before coming before the regents for approval on Sept. 22. Please submit comments no later than Sept. 16 to publiccomments@umich.edu.

Original language of the bylaws with additions in bold, and proposed deletions are indicated with ~~striketrough~~.

Article XI: Sec. 11.21: The University of Michigan-Flint School of Education and Human Services Executive Committee (revised ~~November 2021~~ September 2022)

The executive committee will consist of the dean and four full-time tenured members of the governing faculty ~~of senate rank~~, each to be appointed for a ~~two~~-three-year term by the Regents on recommendation by the president. The members of the committee should be broadly representative to include members from each department in the school and will not be eligible for reappointment until after the lapse of one year. The terms will be adjusted so that two vacancies will occur each year. The dean will chair the committee.

Article XI: Sec. 11.07. The University of Michigan-Dearborn: College of Arts, Sciences, and Letters Executive Committee (revised ~~April 2008~~ September 2022)

The executive committee will consist of the dean and ~~eight~~-seven faculty members of senate rank to be appointed by the Regents on recommendation by the chancellor and the president. The appointed members will not be eligible for reappointment until after the lapse of one year. The terms will be for three years and will be so adjusted that at least two vacancies will occur each year. The dean will chair the committee.
